DETAILED ACTION

As stated in the previous Office communication this case has been withdrawn from issue. An action on the merits follows.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 32-33 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Pioch (4,276,675). Note that the pivoted handle is supported by an extended portion of the housing.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 37 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Pioch (4,276,675) in view of Dickey et al. (5,317,947). Pioch shows the claimed invention except that the saw is not shown. Dickey shows a device to convert a drill into a circular saw. Obviously one of ordinary skill in the art would add such a device to the device of Pioch to increase its versatility.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claim s 20-24 are allowed.

Claims 34-35 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
